FUN WITH THE WHĀNAU

Need a helping hand to plan your visit? Check out our whānau itinerary.

0800 // Wake up refreshed at The Last Church in Āpiti. A renovated Sunday School, this is the ultimate place to escape and relax with a roaring woodburner, outdoor bath and plenty of fresh northern Manawātū air.

0930 // If your whānau loves a challenge, make sure to take the short drive down the road to Makoura Lodge. Human sheep dog trials, axe throwing, horse treks and 4WD safari. It's a little bit extraordinary.

1200 // Hop in the car and take a cruise into Palmy, along one of The Country Road scenic driving routes. Treat yourself to lunch at Cafe Cuba with a selection of Kiwi classics, a cabinet filled with the best in baked goods and exceptional New Zealand coffee. For the kids, they offer a full children's menu to fill their bellies.

1330 // Once the batteries are recharged, make a stop at the Central Energy Trust Wildbase Recovery Centre in Victoria Esplanade. Here, friendly guides will teach you about Aotearoa's native animals, the struggles they face, their significance to Māori and the passionate people who work to save them.

Continue exploring Victoria Esplanade, starting with the Junior Road Safety Park where kids will love practicing their road knowledge and cycling skills – and you can sit back and relax as you watch them burn off some energy. Alternatively, hop on your bikes and cycle along the Manawātū River Pathway and across the new He Ara Kotahi bridge. If it's a wet day, we've got you covered with a trip to Cloud 9 Trampoline Park where the kids can spring into action or stop in at Te Manawa Museum to get hands-on in one of the interactive learning discovery spaces.

1800 // The perfect end to a Palmy day with your whānau is to enjoy delicious woodfire pizza at Pompeii Pizza. The kids will be entertained with a small piece of dough while you wait which can be woodfired for a snack later on.

BREW UNION

Whether you're here for relaxation or reconnection, or a little bit of both, a break in Manawātū will leave you feeling refreshed. Whatever love language you speak, we have you covered.

0800 // Wake up to views of beautiful rolling countryside at Ridge Top Farm Glamping and listen in on the welcoming gurgle of neighbouring magpies. Savour breakfast made specially for you by your hosts, and soak in the outdoor bathtub - you'll truly feel the spirit of Manawātū.

0930 // After a blissful start to the day, hop in your car and head to Te Āpiti - Manawātū Gorge. Here, you can choose from one of the three walking tracks that take you through an immersive native bush as you climb up to spectacular views over the Gorge and across the region.

1230 // When you're all walked out, make your way to The Herb Farm where you'll find a natural oasis just outside of Ashhurst. Unwind from the morning's activities while enjoying delicious fresh food. After lunch, wander around the gardens and browse their range of natural beauty, healing, and therapeutic products.

1400 // Take in a couples massage at Studio 31's day spa then head to Centrepont Theatre to lose yourselves in an entertaining performance from talented local and international actors.

1900 // End your day on Broadway Avenue at Haru Japanese Restaurant, savouring fresh Japanese cuisine. From a traditional Japanese multi-course dinner, to Haru zensai platters and bento boxes, you won't be disappointed as you savour each mouthful washed down with a plum wine or splash of sake.

2100 // Sticking around for a nightcap? Take a stroll a few doors down to Brew Union and join in the electric atmosphere with a craft brew in hand.

59

SQUARE EDGE

Palmerston North
47 The Square

Monday – Friday
10am – 5pm

+64 6 2418444

Described as a space where anyone can come in and enjoy themselves - it's like a village on its own. And that it is. Inside you'll find galleries, stores, workshops, studios, community spaces and even a café. Artists often work with open door policies so feel free to chat with them to learn more about their work.

60

WHATONGA, TE ĀPITI - MANAWATŪ GORGE

Te Āpiti -
Manawātū Gorge

At 6 metres tall, Whatonga is a contemporary steel sculpture which sits at the top/halfway point of the Tawa Loop Track. It depicts historical seafarer and Rangitane chief Whatonga, who was one of the captains of the Kurahaupo Waka, which journeyed across the Pacific Ocean to Aotearoa, New Zealand possibly as early as the 12th century. The Ngai Tara and Rangitāne people trace their descent from Whatonga.

61

TE MARAE O HINE (THE SQUARE)

Palmerston North
The Square

Te Marae o Hine – The Courtyard of the Daughter of Peace was intended by iwi and the borough of the time to be a place of peace and unity for all facets of Papaioea. As the city was beginning to take form, a space referred to as “The Flat”, remained untouched at its centre. Rangitāne kaumātua realised Māori needed a secure space for Māori customs to be preserved, and an area for all cultures to come together peacefully as a community.

62

TE PUHARA O TURITEA

Palmerston North

A viewing platform along the He Ara Kotahi pathway which offers an unobstructed view of our beautiful awa (river) and city. The lookout – a two-storey cantilevered platform was built in 2022 to give homage to Te Pūhara o Turitea, a traditional site of Rangitāne.

Te Pūhara o Turitea (the sentry watchtower of Turitea) was between nine and 15 metres tall and provided Rangitāne people with an unobstructed 360-degree view of anyone coming up or down the river.
